Chapter 1 by shadaabkhan

Danny was excited, as he watched from the window of the train, his small home town gradually nearing . He is returning home after 5 years. He planned to surprise his family so he didn't informed anybody.

While Danny was walking down the street towards his home, he sensed the street was awfully quiet. The street which is always full with people was deserted today. He sensed some unknown tension in the atmosphere.

Danny turns right towards a small lane towards his home. He was taken aback when he saw a big crowd standing in-front of his home. People bowed down their head with respect on seeing him.

Scarred, Danny ran and dashed inside his home. A tall guy dressed in white stopped him.

"Easy man! nobody is allowed inside, Who are you?" asked the doctor.

"Hey! who are you? What is going on? Where is my father?" replied Danny.

"Thanks God! At last somebody came. There is a bad news son. Your father is battling for his life, somebody beat him down and your sister is raped. She is in hospital."
